Resort Profile: Nakiska Ski Resort

Nakiska Ski Resort was built for the 1988 Winter Olympics and is located in the stunning Kananaskis Valley. Nakiska is designated as a National Training Centre by Alpine Canada Alpin, and is used today as a pre-season training facility for teams from around the world. Nakiska also fosters the development of Canada's future skiing champions by hosting public schools, ski clubs, and provincial teams throughout the entire ski season. Nakiska is also a great resort to learn the sport of skiing and snowboarding with wide-open runs groomed to perfection.

Nakiska is located 89 kilometres from the urban centre of Calgary and 67 kilometres from the mountain town of Canmore.

Resorts of the Canadian Rockies (RCR Inc.) owns Nakiska Ski Resort. Headquartered in Calgary, RCR Inc. also owns and operates Fernie Alpine Resort and Kimberley Alpine Resort in Western Canada and Mont Ste. Anne and Stoneham in Eastern Canada.
